Volunteer Responsibilities and Expectations

A positive, supportive environment is a critical value and asset of the clinic. In order to assure the provision of consistent services and quality standards of care, all volunteers who work at the Chippewa Valley Free Clinic are asked to adhere to these responsibilities and expectations.

1. Treat patients, staff and fellow volunteers with courtesy and respect.
2. Know and follow patient confidentiality and privacy standards. (signed agreement)
3. Complete the orientation and all required training required for the volunteer role.
4. Attend all shifts and events to which the volunteer is committed.
  - The basic commitment is six shifts per year: requirements may vary in specific areas. (A schedule will be provided.)
  - Shifts are specific to volunteer job. (Clinic, non-clinic, etc...)
  - Sign-In on the Sign In Sheet
  - Check in with your supervisor at the start of each shift
  - To the best of your ability, we ask that you find a replacement for duties when scheduling conflicts occur. A volunteer roster will be provided.
  - If unable to find a replacement, please notify clinic staff at info@cvfreeclinic.org as soon as possible.
5. Know and follow Clinic policies and procedures in the area of responsibility.
6. Report any violations of Free Clinic policies, patient safety issues, equipment or facility problems or any other problematic situation to your supervisor.
7. Work cooperatively with staff and volunteers in other areas of the Clinic.
8. Use all Clinic equipment and materials effectively, efficiently and safely.

By reading and signing this form, I agree to uphold myself to the expectations listed above.
